

Collecting your sunflower lanyard

Christchurch Airport is proud to support the Hidden Disabilities Sunflower Scheme.

Sunflower lanyards are available free of charge

You can either collect one from the Airport Services office or we can post one to you.

To have your sunflower lanyard posted to you, please contact our team

You can email reception@cial.co.nz to request your lanyard.

We're available to help weekdays
9.30am – 4.30pm. Closed on public holidays.

Your lanyard will be posted to you free of charge.

If you'd like to collect your lanyard

You're welcome to pick up your lanyard from the Airport Services office.

The Airport Services office is located in the terminal on the ground floor behind the Air New Zealand Check-in area (Zone A).

Finding your way

You will need to go through the door into the corridor to get to the office.

When you enter the corridor turn left and walk to the end.

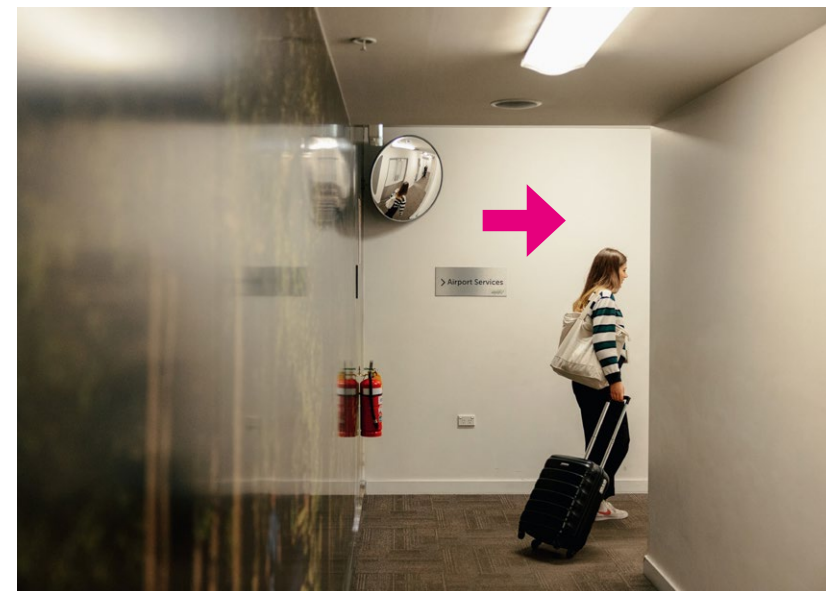

Finding your way

At the end of the corridor turn left. There is signage to guide you.

At the end of the corridor turn right. There is signage to guide you.

Finding your way

Please enter the second door on the right and wait at the counter.

If the counter is unattended, please press the bell and wait for a team member to come help.

Our friendly team will issue you with your sunflower lanyard.

Thank you

We're delighted you've chosen to wear a lanyard. It's a great way to let our staff know you might need a little extra assistance when you're at the airport.
